

Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation

Division of Professional Regulation

NAME OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION:	Loyola University Chicago – Marcella Niehoff School of Nursing
POSITION:	Non-Tenure Track Assistant Professor (or higher), Community Health Nursing
RESPONSIBILITIES:	Teaching: The teaching load for this position is approximately 24 credits per academic year. Faculty are expected to: Demonstrate one's thoughtfully developed philosophy of and pedagogy toward teaching Develop a recognized content area /teaching method within school of nursing Uses a variety of innovative teaching techniques, including clinical simulations/electronic teaching methods, to promote critical thinking and achieve course outcomes. Design course materials that reflect the latest science in the field, and integrates evidence into practice. Advise/evaluate student's scholarly projects (comprehensive exams, etc.) Participate in collaborative and/or multidisciplinary educational / practice improvement projects with agencies at the local/ regional level. Scholarship: Faculty are expected to: Develop a defined program of research/scholarship. Demonstrate ability to successfully conduct research/scholarly projects.

Demonstrate ability to successfully obtain internal or local funding.

Develop collegial relationships with potential for collaborative and or multidisciplinary research/scholarly projects.

Communicate research/ scholarly work as evidenced by presentation at scholarly conferences at local, state, or regional conferences

Disseminate research/scholarship, including dissertation and/or independent post-doctoral research, by publishing in referred journals.

Review abstracts for consideration by internal or local professional conferences.

Support the research/scholarly mission of the School and/or University.

Disseminate research/ scholarship to students through teaching.

Sought out by faculty colleagues and/or students for research/scholarly expertise.

Service:

Faculty are expected to:

Provide support for services provided in the SBHC. Assist with writing and submitting grants and developing and maintaining quality education opportunities for students in the community based clinical courses

Attend MNSON and University events

Assume leadership on appointed and elected committees and task forces within the MNSON

Participate in public policy and support legislation which affects health care in area of practice

Organize and participate in community outreach activities that promote health such as health fairs, career days to encourage

	young people to seek careers in nursing Maintain regular office hours in order to advise students and to be available to students for coaching and mentoring. Provide consultation in area of expertise at local level Appreciate the University's global mission and support student and faculty involvement in international programs and facilitate student participation as appropriate
MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:	PhD in nursing or a related field, or DNP is required If the doctoral degree is in a related field, a graduate degree in nursing is required Demonstrated clinical experience in community/public health nursing practice Knowledge of current issues and trends in community/public health nursing Strong organizational, communication and administrative skills Collaborative and consultative working style Recent teaching experience in clinical settings is desirable. Experience with grant writing is desirable
PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:	As stated above
TO APPLY:	Review of applications will begin in January, 2017 and continue until the position is filled. Anticipated start date is July 1, 2017. Applicants are asked to submit (1) a letter of interest, (2) curriculum vitae, (3) copy of the doctoral degree transcript, and (4) the names and contact information of three individuals prepared to provide professional references. Direct applications to: www.careers.luc.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=59386 Make inquiries to: Dr. Cathlin Poronsky, Chair, Search Committee, Marcella Niehoff School of Nursing, Loyola University Chicago, 2160 S. First Ave., Maywood, IL, 60153 cporonsky@luc.edu