

Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation

Division of Professional Regulation

NAME OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION:	Loyola University of Chicago, Marcella Niehoff School of Nursing
POSITION:	Full-Time, 9-Month, Non-Tenure-Track, Open Rank, Leadership and Management (Nursing)
RESPONSIBILITIES:	Teaching: Prior effective experience teaching leadership and management for undergraduate students. Prior work experience in a leadership or management role in service is desired, to relate real world experiences to classroom instruction. Employs a variety of innovative teaching techniques to promote critical thinking and achieve course outcomes, including but not limited to lecture, laboratory experiences, case studies, and simulation based learning. Teaches courses in the undergraduate and accelerated pre-licensure nursing programs as assigned; may teach in other programs with in the School of Nursing based on expertise and need. Exemplifies a clearly developed philosophy of and pedagogy toward teaching, consistent with the values of the University and School of Nursing. Maintains certification in an area of specialty expertise, if applicable. Scholarship: Supports the research/scholarly mission of the School and/or University. Demonstrates ability to successfully conduct research/scholarly projects, consistent with educational preparation. Has a defined area of content expertise and interest for scholarly activities. Disseminates research/scholarship to students through teaching, presentations, and publication of clinically or educationally based journal articles. Service: Actively serves as a member of MNSON committees and/or task forces. Participates in University and SON activities. Participates in community outreach activities that promote health and improve health systems. Attends MNSON and University events.

	Attends and assists at conferences or workshops involving MNSON or University at local level. Maintains availability to students for coaching and mentoring.
MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:	Licensure in the state of Illinois as a Registered Nurse or Eligible for Illinois RN licensure(s) Certification in specialty area preferred Ability to work in a healthcare environment Microsoft Office
PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:	Required qualifications include: Minimum of a master's degree in nursing for the Instructor rank. A doctorate (PhD in nursing or DNP) is required for the Assistant Professor rank. Post-secondary teaching experience commensurate with appointment at the rank of non-tenure track Instructor or higher and commitment to research and scholarly endeavors, consistent with the rank. Content expertise nursing leadership and management is required. Prior experience in a leadership or management position in healthcare is highly desirable, as is prior teaching experience in leadership and management, and experience with simulation based learning.
TO APPLY:	https://www.careers.luc.edu/postings/6631