

Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation
Division of Professional Regulation

NAME OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION:	Rockford University
POSITION:	Clinical Adjunct for N406 Community Health Nursing Starting Spring 2014 semester
RESPONSIBILITIES:	Adjunct instructor will work closely with course faculty to supervise community course experiences with assigned student groups at the baccalaureate level. Assigns experiences appropriate to the course and level of the student. Provides the student with learning opportunities and regular feedback to support success. Evaluates students using required format for the course.
MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:	Illinois licensure as a Registered Professional Nurse. MS(N)with clinical experience in Community Health Nursing.
PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:	Community clinical teaching experience at the baccalaureate level preferred. Experience with integration of community health concepts into clinical teaching preferred. A passion for teaching students in a community health setting.
TO APPLY:	Contact Assistant Professor Denise Boxleitner at DBoxleitner@rockford.edu (815)-226-4126 or by mail at Rockford University 5050 E. State Street Rockford, IL 61108