

New from IDFPR – Online Resources

The Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation website <http://idfpr.com> is regularly updated to provide Illinois licensed professionals with useful resources. From our home page, a variety of licensing user guides and additional tools can be found by clicking “Online Resources.”

Print a copy of your license or store a copy on your smartphone or tablet:

The tab “eLicense Search” allows “Licensed Professionals” (the middle option) the opportunity to print a free copy of their license. Licensees only need to provide their individual license number and date of birth or last four digits of your social security number.

For licensees wishing to store an electronic license pocket card on their smartphone or tablet, please visit: www.idfpr.com/GetMyLicense. Electronic pocket cards may be saved as a PDF file or by taking a screenshot and storing as a photo.

To Change your Address:

A change of address, including email address or change of phone number can be accomplished online. <https://www.idfpr.com/applications/LicenseReprint/> A change of name cannot be completed via online process, supporting documents must be submitted to Licensing in Springfield, IL.

If you have questions, is there someone to talk to? Yes, assistance is available Monday through Friday by contacting the IDFPR call center at: 1-800-560-6420; or by email at: FPR.LMU@illinois.gov.
