*4-year universities that are full participants in the Illinois Articulation Initiative (IAI)

4-year universities that are receiving only institutions in the IAI.

The definition of “partnership” is broadly defined as a written agreement between 4-year university and 2-year community college re: transfer of course credit hours.

Additional background partnership information is reflected in schools participating in the Illinois Articulation Initiative (IAI), which was launched in 1993 by the Illinois Board of Higher Education (IBHE) and the Illinois Community College Board (ICCB). Of the 4 year public universities that offer a BSNc program, all 8 are full participants in the Illinois Articulation Initiative (IAI); of the 4 year Independent Universities, 9 are full participants in the IAI, 8 are listed as a receiving only institution and finally 8 are not listed as Illinois Articulation Initiative
