

Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation
Division of Professional Regulation

NAME OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION:	Menonite College of Nursing @ Illinois State University
POSITION:	Assistant Professor
RESPONSIBILITIES:
MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:	Candidates must possess the terminal degree (PhD or DNP), in nursing or related field (Master's in Nursing required if doctorate not in nursing), potential for scholarly productivity, passion for teaching, and be eligible for licensure as a Registered Nurse in Illinois. We are seeking candidates with expertise in the following areas: Children's Health, Public Health, Nursing Simulation Research, and Healthcare Policy.
PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:
TO APPLY:	Appointments begin August 16, 2014. Initial review of application will begin immediately and continue until the positions are filled. Employment is contingent upon a successful criminal background screening and negative drug screening. To assure full consideration, please complete an online application for posting number 0705510 at www.IllinoisState.edu/jobs and additionally submit a letter of application, curriculum vita, and contact information for three professional references by September 20, 2013 to: Caroline Mallory, PhD, RN Associate Dean for Research and Chair, Search Committee Menonite College of Nursing Campus Box 5810 Illinois State University Normal, IL 61790-5810 (309) 438-3143, (309) 438-2620 (fax) mavevin@ilstu.edu www.Nursing.Illinois.State.edu Illinois State University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action University encouraging diversity.